CHARLES F. (Charlie) THOMAS

Chairman of the Board

"To us, Charlie Thomas is the prototypical owner. On the one hand he is a great fan, as is his wife Kittsie. On the other hand, when it comes to running the team, he knows that you hire professionals, you support them both emotionally and financially and you demand results from them. He has done that. Under the leadership of Charlie Thomas and Steve Patterson, this franchise has been more successful each year." (David Stern, NBA Commissioner).

Charlie Thomas is entering his 10th season as owner of the Houston Rockets (longer than any of the prior six proprietorships of the team) and he has known nothing but success. Consider the following:

*The Rockets have made the playoffs a franchise best seven straight seasons, including a trip to the Finals in 1986.

*The Rockets have had a .500 or better record a franchise best seven straight seasons.

*The Rockets won a franchise record 52 games in 1990-91.

*The Rockets have drawn more than 600,000 fans six straight seasons in The Summit, that's 97 percent capacity. The Summit has been sold out for 165 of the last 228 games including exhibitions and playoffs—all franchise bests (the Rockets averaged 7,491 fans in 1982-83).

*With Thomas' help, Houston played host to the NBA's annual All-Star Weekend in 1989; the All-Star game was played in the Astrodome before a record crowd of 44,735.

*Two consecutive "lucky" coin flips brought Ralph Sampson and perennial All-Pro center Hakeem Olajuwon to the Rockets (1983 and 1984, respectively).

*Pivotal member of the expansion committee which brought Charlotte, Miami, Minnesota, Orlando into the NBA.

The Knoxville, Tenn., native purchased the Rockets in June of 1982 for approximately $9.8 million—he has had recent queries to purchase the team for $100 million. Thomas received an immediate return on his initial investment. With a call of "heads" (on advice from his youngest daughter Tracy), Houston got the first of what would become back-to-back No. 1 picks and landed Ralph Sampson in the 1983 draft.

"I was familiar with basketball from the standpoint of what the league was planning on doing," Thomas said, citing the innovative salary cap and television plans. "That's what attracted me. I never thought the NBA would do this. You could never overstate the importance of those two coin flips."

Thomas was a quietly successful automobile dealer in the summer of 1982 when he purchased the team with Sidney Shlenker (who went on to own the Denver Nuggets), with encouragement from current San Antonio Spurs' owner Red McCombs. He brought in Austin developer Gary Bradley as a 20 percent owner in 1984 and sold limited partnerships in the remaining 26 percent of the club.

His management team is headed by third-year General Manager Steve Patterson and fourth-year Head Coach Don Chaney.

"It's like any other business that you would buy. You want to control who you hire to do the job and give them certain guidelines to operate under. But sports is different. That same guy who would buy a bank and hire another guy to run it would buy a team but want to get involved. It's your job as owner to replace management, if needed, but not do their job for them," Thomas said, explaining his ownership philosophy.

The business side of the Rockets has also seen tremendous progress considering the Rockets receive a 49 per cent share of the profits of the Arena Operating Company, plus they also have the rights to sell all signage in the arena. A broadcast package second to none in pro sports completes the package with all games broadcast on KTRH Radio-740 and in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM), all road games telecast on KTXH-TV 20 and all home games on Home Sports Entertainment cable.

Thomas attended the University of Tennessee for two years before he became a Texan in 1956 when he joined an auto agency in Corpus Christi. He purchased his first agency in 1967 in Baytown. He was the 1982 recipient of the "Mr. Sportsman" award given by Interfaith Charities, a joint effort of the B'Nai B'rith and the Knights of Columbus, and was honoree at the Easter Seals Gala in October 1986. He was honored by the City of Houston at its 153rd Anniversary Dinner and Celebration.

Charlie and his wife of 39 years, Kittsie, reside in Houston. They are the parents of three daughters: Kelly; Robin (Mrs. Daniel) Klaes; and Tracy (Mrs. P. Jeffery) Everist.

GARY BRADLEY

Vice-Chairman of the Board

An Austin real estate developer, Gary Bradley, is currently developing Austin's largest master-planned community—Circle C Ranch. Bradley is a self-confessed basketball fanatic who bought into the Houston Rockets, Aug. 15, 1984 and now owns approximately 25 per cent. Charlie Thomas remains the team's majority shareholder and general partner with a 54 per cent interest while the remaining 21 per cent is shared by 30 limited partners. Both Thomas and Bradley are seen quite frequently at Rockets out of town games in addition to the home contests. Bradley, 40, is a native of Amherst, a town of 825 located 50 miles northwest of Lubbock. He has been an Austin resident the last 20 years since enrolling at the University of Texas where he received his degree in finance. Since graduation he has been involved in the Austin real estate market.

E.C. ("ED") SCHMIDT II President

E.C. ("Ed") Schmidt II was named the fourth president in franchise history by owner Charlie Thomas on Sept. 1, 1990. Schmidt succeeds Ray Patterson — the Rockets' Chief Executive Officer from 1972 through 1990.

Schmidt is no stranger to the Rockets' organization having served in a number of capacities since Thomas bought the team in 1982. Most recently, he has served as Vice President-Finance, Corporate Secretary and General Counsel. He has also been responsible for relations with the limited partners who were brought into the Rockets' partnership in 1984 to expand the franchise's presence in the Houston business community. He recently completed the renegotiation of the franchise debt with First City Texas-Houston.

Schmidt, who has been Charlie Thomas' attorney and CPA for over 10 years, has a wide range of business experience, including representing Thomas' business interests in the Caribbean and Far East in the early 1980s. He is a former director of South Main Bank, First Texas Savings, Gibraltar Savings and a number of other businesses operated by Thomas. He also was a tax accountant for Arthur Anderson & Co., from 1975 to 1979.

The 44-year-old Schmidt has been in Houston since 1975. He was born at Barksdale Air Force Base in Louisiana. Schmidt earned his BBA from the University of Texas in 1969, his JD from UT in 1976 and his CPA certificate in 1977.

STEVE PATTERSON

General Manager

Steve Patterson became the Houston Rockets' fourth General Manager on Sept. 11, 1989. Patterson, 34, is not only the youngest GM in the NBA, but he has proven to be one of the shrewdest, as evidenced by his transformation of the Rockets into a legitimate championship contender.

When Patterson took over the average age of the Rockets' players was 28--it's now 26.6. The additions he has made to the roster have taken the Rockets from a 41-41 team in 1989-90 to a franchise-record 52-30 in 1990-91. Patterson's acquisitions:

*Dave Jamerson and Carl Herrera (turned one 1990 draft pick, Alec Kessler, into two in draft-day trade with Miami)--Jamerson played brilliantly against the Lakers in the playoffs after a strong regular-season finish.

*Vernon Maxwell (for cash from San Antonio)--he set the NBA record for 3-PTers made in 1990-91 (172).

*Kenny Smith (acquired in trade with Atlanta for Tim McCormick and John Lucas)--finished third in 1990-91 NBA Most Improved Player balloting; turned in numbers for a Rockets' guard only previously reached by Calvin Murphy.

*Larry Smith (signed as unrestricted free agent)--recorded 9 20-rebounds games, the most 20-rebound games in the NBA in 1990-91.

*David Wood (signed as free agent)--helped Rockets improve to one of best defensive teams in NBA, and has proven to be one of the fans' favorites.

The above mentioned group (with the exception of Herrera who signed in September 1991 after playing in Spain) was responsible for Houston setting or equalling 63 franchise records in 1990-91--including best overall record, longest winning streak, best road record and best record for one month. They also continued the Rockets' franchise-record streak of making the playoffs seven straight seasons, which has enabled the continuation of another franchise record--six straight seasons of drawing 600,000+ fans.

Steve and his father (Ray) became the first father-son team to run an NBA franchise in 1989-90. Ray Patterson was President and General Manager of the Rockets from May 1, 1972 until Steve's appointment as GM in September 1989. Ray Patterson, who earned NBA Executive of the Year honors in 1976-77 and is the only GM in league history to lead two different franchises to the NBA Finals (Milwaukee 1971, Houston 1981 and 1986), retired Aug. 31, 1990.

Patterson is beginning his eighth fulltime season with the Rockets, having served as Counsel to the President (1984-89). Patterson, who has been involved in most every aspect of the club, is responsible for all business aspects of the franchise, including the team's marketing and merchandising, negotiation of player contracts, working with the NBA's legal department, negotiations for lease agreements, plus negotiating television and cable contracts (such as the six-year contract with Home Sports Entertainment signed in 1989), and doing all the salary cap permutations for the trades made in the last six years.

Upon earning his Law Degree from the University of Texas (1984), he became Counsel to the President for the Rockets and was put in charge of marketing. He took over the business operations in 1986.

Upon coming to the Rockets on a fulltime basis, Patterson installed a computer network in the front office that handles all the team's ticketing operations as well as word processing, accounting, scouting and salary cap information. This system has been of great assistance in the Rockets maintaining the NBA's highest season-ticket base (over 14,000 seats) the last six seasons. Patterson helped coordinate the Rockets' successful bid for the 1989 NBA All-Star game played in the Astrodome (Feb. 12, 1989). Under Patterson's direction the Rockets have developed a five-state, 21-station radio network anchored by the 50,000-watt flagship KTRH (740 AM). The Rockets became one of only three teams to broadcast all of its games in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM) in 1988-89.

Patterson graduated from Dulles High School (Stafford, TX) in May of 1975, where he started on the basketball team (ranked fifth in Texas) his senior year. Patterson, born Sept. 21, 1957 in Beaver Dam, Wis., then attended the University of Texas where he graduated with honors, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing in December, 1980. THANKS FOR MAKING US WHAT WE ARE. NUMBER ONE.

Because of your support, Borden Milk is preferred over any other milk in Houston by a 4-to-1 margin.

Besides our great taste, there are a couple of reasons that's true. For one, we're easy to find - 97% of all grocery stores here carry the Borden line. And we've become something of a tradition. During the 56 years we've been in Houston, 21 dairies have come and gone, but Borden has continued to provide fresh, premium-quality dairy products.

As a result, Borden remains the number-one selling milk in Houston. So drink up.

Borden Hi-Protein Lowfat Milk is proud to be the official milk of the Houston Rockets.

ROCKETS ON THE AIR

One of professional sports most complete broadcast packages is enjoyed by the Houston Rockets. All games are broadcast on the Rockets' 21-station radio network, with KTRH-740 AM serving as the flagship station; all the games are also broadcast in Spanish on KXYZ-1320 AM. The Rockets distribute their radio broadcasts on satellite via the Texas State Network, which also makes it possible to send special programming to all of the affiliates which cover a six-state area including Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi.

All road games are telecast by KTXH TV-20 and 30 home games will be cablecast by Home Sports Entertainment (HSE); 9 home games are scheduled for Pay-Per-View on HSE (Nov. 19 vs New York, Dec. 5 vs Atlanta, Jan. 11 vs Seattle, Jan. 21 vs Milwaukee, Jan. 30 vs Chicago, Feb. 14 vs Boston, March 15 vs Utah, March 31 vs LA Lakers, April 14 vs Portland)—two other home games could be on Pay-Per-View if NBC doesn't pick them up: Feb. 23 vs San Antonio and April 19 vs Phoenix.

As part of the NBA television package, the Rockets are scheduled for five appearances on TNT (Nov. 19 vs New York, Dec. 27 at Washington, Feb. 5 at Boston, March 3 at Phoenix, March 31 vs LA Lakers), plus the possibility of two games on NBC (Feb. 23 vs San Antonio and April 19 vs Phoenix; both are wild-card selections, a decision on the Feb. 23 game will be made by Feb. 10; April 13 for the Phoenix game). A weekly Rocket radio show, "Inside the Rockets" is heard one hour before tipoff on weekend games. Head Coach Don Chaney can be heard weekly on KTRH Radio (740 AM).

The Radio Team

Gene Peterson, who is entering his 17th season as Voice of the Rockets, will be joined on all broadcasts for a fifth straight year by Rockets' Director of Communications, Jim Foley.

Peterson joined the Rockets in 1975 and has broadcast 1,312 regular season and 95 playoff games without a miss. The Albert Lea, MN, native studied broadcasting at Brown Institute in Minneapolis. After Air Force duty he began his radio career at WECL, Eau Claire, WI. He also worked at KOB, Albuquerque, NM; KCMO, Kansas City, MO; and KPRC, Houston, before joining the Rockets. Gene and his wife, Marsha, reside in Kingwood—they have two sons, Todd, 28, and Paul, 19, plus one daughter, Jennifer, 25. One of the top golfers in the broadcast ranks, the Houston Irish Open Tournament has borne his name for the last six years despite his Scandinavian background.

Foley, who is beginning his 23rd NBA season (19 Houston, 3 Milwaukee), was the Rockets' Director of Public Relations for 15 years after serving in that position three years with the Milwaukee Bucks. He was promoted to Director of Communications in August, 1987. The Marquette University graduate comes from LaSalle, IL. Following school, he served as an officer in the Navy for four years, and began his public relations career with the New York Central Railroad in Chicago. He was named Sports Information Director in 1965 at Marquette where he worked for four years before joining the NBA Bucks in 1969. He is active in area Irish activities, including Houston's annual St. Patrick's Day Parade—he was the Grand Marshall in 1989. He is also an avid golfer. He and his wife Carolyn reside in Houston.

Rolando Becerra (play-by-play) and Alex Lopez-Negrete (color) are in their fourth season of describing Rockets' action in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM). The 42-year-old Becerra has been in the radio business 22 years, starting in Miami on WOBA as a sports reporter. He has been in Houston the last 13 years, and has been KXYZ's News/Sports Director since 1983. Since 1986 Becerra has been the Spanish voice of the Houston Astros. Becerra and his wife Jenny reside in Pasadena—they have one daughter (Barbara) and two sons (Jason, Jaron).

Lopez-Negrete, who was born in Houston, raised and educated in Mexico City, is president of Lopez-Negrete Communications. Alex started his professional career in the U.S. by representing the Grupo Novedades de publicaciones (the largest publishing conglomerate in Mexico) in the Southwest. He also served as international/Mexico marketing counsel for some of Houston's largest advertising agencies, real estate developers and retailers before opening his own business. Alex and his wife Cathy reside in Missouri City—they have one daughter (Michelle) and son (Patrick).

The TV Team

Bill Worrell and Calvin Murphy will team up to describe all the Rockets' action in 1991-92. Worrell will handle all play-by-play duties and Murphy will be the color commentator on all telecasts; with Bruce Gietzen handling anchor chores in the studio on KTXH.

Worrell is a graduate of Lamar High and University of Houston where he played varsity baseball. He began his broadcast career at Houston's KPRC-TV 2 in 1970, and was that station's Sports Director from 1974 through 1980. He has been HSE's Sports Director since it began operation in 1982. He has done play-by-play not only for the Rockets but also for the Astros, and Oilers—plus college football and basketball. He has been involved with Rockets' telecasts on Channel 20 and HSE for the last six seasons after having done play-by-play on Rockets' telecasts for KHTV-39 in 1980-81 and 1981-82. A bachelor, he also is one of the fine golfers associated with the Rockets.

This is Murphy's second year as color commentator on KTXH-TV 20, and his third as an on-court reporter at all home games for HSE. He also handles community relations work, and helps the Rockets' players work on shooting (for further info, see his biography on page 9).

COACHES

Red Auerbach Trophy
1990-91 NBA Coach of the Year
DON CHANEY
Houston Rockets

Presented by Digital Equipment Corporation

DON CHANEY

Head Coach

Don Chaney, who became the eighth head coach in the Rockets' 24-year history on June 13, 1988, has shown he has the winning touch in his three seasons at the helm.

Consider the following:

- Chaney not only has the best winning percentage in franchise history (.561), but he is also the only Rockets' coach to have a .500 or better record and make the playoffs in each season.
- He was a near unanimous selection as Digital NBA Coach of the Year after guiding the Rockets to their best season in franchise history (52-30) in 1990-91. Houston set or tied 63 franchise records in 1990-91, including most wins (season, month) and longest winning streak (13).
- He is the first in league history to win NBA Coach of the Month honors consecutive months (February, March 1991).
- All-Star center Hakeem Olajuwon missed the longest stretch of games of his career (25 games) from Jan. 5-Feb. 26, 1991. Chaney guided the Rockets to a 15-10 record during his absence--winning 11 of the last 14 games Olajuwon missed. Then Chaney blended Olajuwon back into the lineup which resulted in a 20-7 finish (Houston finished three games out of first and in third place in the Midwest Division).
- Houston went 21-20 on the road in 1990-91, equalling the franchise record (1981-82).
- The Rockets have had a .500+ record in 15 of his 18 months as coach, another franchise best. Chaney's Rockets have won nine or more games six times--only Bill Fitch has done better (8).
- Chaney earned his 100th Rockets' win in his 189th game--which is the quickest in franchise history (Fitch earned his 100th Rockets' win in his 199th game).

He has done all this by stressing defense. Over the last three seasons the Rockets have allowed opponents to shoot only .463 from the field—only Detroit (.4489) and Utah (.4493) have lower marks. His teams have held opponents to less than 50 percent shooting from the field in 180 games, compiling a 121-59 (.672) record. The Rockets have held opponents to less than 100 points 89 times over the last three seasons, compiling a 73-16 (.820) record. The Rockets set franchise season records for fewest field goals allowed (3,337) and most games holding opponents to less than 100 points (40) in 1990-91. His 1989-90 team finished 41-41, despite the fifth highest player games missed due to injuries total in the NBA (177). Houston yielded only 105.3 points per game—the lowest yield since 1976-77 (104.8). The Rockets recorded a franchise record 809 steals, plus they grabbed their highest rebound total (47.0 per game) since 1976-77 (47.4).

Chaney's first team finished 45-37 in 1988-89, one game off the 1987-88 pace, but there were drastic improvements: 1) Houston finished 2nd in the Midwest Division after placing fourth in 1987-88; 2) Houston was 19-11 vs the Midwest as compared to 13-17 in 1987-88; 3) Houston was 8-7 in road games vs the Midwest after going 3-12 in 1987-88; 4) Houston didn't have a losing record during any month of the season—a franchise first. Houston picked up defensive intensity as it limited opponents to less than 100 points 23 times as compared to 17 in 1987-88—plus the Rockets were 40-20 in games they held opponents to less than 50 percent shooting from the field as compared to 37-24 in 1987-88. Looking at Chaney's background, his accomplishments shouldn't be a surprise.

The former University of Houston star (1965-68) was an assistant coach at Atlanta in 1987-88. He was the Los Angeles Clippers' head coach (1985-87), an assistant coach for the Clippers (1983-85), and an assistant at Detroit (1980-83) after ending a professional career that spanned 12 seasons (1968-80).

Atlanta General Manager Stan Kasten had this to say about the 45-year-old Chaney, "When we hired him we couldn't expect to keep him long. He's a fine coach and one of the warmest, most wonderful human beings you will ever be around. Chaney's personality is very important. His sincerity is why he gets along so well with players. It's one of the main reasons he will be very, very successful in Houston."

Chaney played 11 seasons in the NBA, one in the ABA after being the 12th pick in the first round of the 1968 draft by Boston. Chaney spent seven seasons with the Celtics (1968-75), before playing one season with the St. Louis Spirits (1975-76). He returned to the NBA in 1976-77 with the Los Angeles Lakers and then was traded back to Boston in December of 1977 where he finished his career.

A five-time second-team All-NBA defensive selection, Chaney is the only player in Celtics' history to have played with Bill Russell and Larry Bird. Boston, Chaney's favorite team as a youngster, won the NBA title in his rookie season (1969), which was the last time a team had won consecutive championships until the Lakers accomplished this feat in 1986-87 and 1987-88.

Midway through his second season, Chaney teamed with Jo Jo White as the starting guards and they helped lead Boston to an NBA championship in 1974. After his one season at St. Louis, the ABA was no more and four teams joined the NBA—St. Louis folded. Chaney signed with the LA Lakers as a free agent. That Lakers' team lost to Portland and the Walton Gang in the Western Conference finals.

Los Angeles traded Chaney and Kermit Washington to Boston for Charlie Scott in December 1977. Near the end of his final season, 1979-80, a hamstring injury sidelined him for the year. Boston's coach, Bill Fitch, asked Chaney to go scout an opponent.

"The interest to coach started there," the Baton Rouge, LA, native said.

He is beginning his 24th year in pro basketball (the Rockets' franchise is 25-years-old this season), and possesses a rich background in the game. Consider a few of his former teammates—Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Moses Malone, John Havlicek, Dave Cowens. He roomed with Don Nelson in Boston and played for Jerry West in Los Angeles.

It all started in Baton Rouge where he played for McKinley High's Carl Stewart where he averaged 26 points a game his senior season. Then he, and Elvin Hayes became the first blacks to play basketball at University of Houston in 1964. The Cougars controlled the town during a three-year span that saw the Hayes-Chaney duo lead them to an 81-12 record and two Final Four appearances. UH was ranked No. 1 in the nation in 1968 and won 31 straight games before losing to UCLA in the national semifinals.

Chaney and Hayes were also part of college basketball history on Jan. 20, 1968 in the Astrodome when they led the Cougars to a 71-69 win over UCLA to take over the No. 1 ranking in the nation. This was the first regular-season major college game to be nationally televised, plus it was the largest regular-season crowd (52,693) to witness a college game. Chaney played all 40 minutes, scored 11 points, had six rebounds and made three key steals in the last five minutes to help pull out the win.

"The UCLA game stands out more than anything," Chaney said of his entire basketball career. "I run into people who remember me for that—and I played 12 years (in the pros)."

Chaney was a second-team AP, UPI All-America selection his senior season.

Another great moment in Chaney's career came June 22, 1991 when he was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. He is the ninth former NBA star to be inducted into the Hall—some of the others include Elvin Hayes, Pete Maravich, Bob Love, Bob Pettit and Willis Reed. Chaney is the seventh Louisiana native to have played for or coached a Houston professional team (Hayes, Rusty Staub, J.R. Richard, Charley Tolar, Charley Hennigan, Billy Cannon).

He lists among his hobbies, fishing, racquetball, restoring antique cars, skydiving and riding cutting horses.

Chaney is married (wife Jackie), they have one son (Michael) and two daughters (Donna and Kara). Donna is a sophomore at University of Kentucky where she is a Pre-Med major.

CARROLL DAWSON

Assistant Coach

"CD" begins his 12th season with the Rockets, working with his third head coach (Del Harris 1980-83, Bill Fitch 1983-88). A "True Texan", Dawson hails from Alba, population 200, about 75 miles east of Dallas. As a 6-foot-5 center he led Alba High to an incredible 44-3 record as a senior. He then went on to win Junior College All-America honors at Paris, TX, under Head Coach Boyd Converse. He was inducted into the Paris Hall of Fame in 1991. Dawson earned All-Southwest Conference honors at Baylor his senior season when he averaged 16.4 points, and 8.8 rebounds in 1960. Dawson, who led the Bill Henderson's Baylor Bears in scoring and rebounding both seasons, averaged 13.3 points and 7.3 rebounds his junior year. In 1963 he returned to Baylor as an assistant to Head Coach Bill Menefee. He succeeded Menefee as head coach in 1973 and remained for 3 1/2 seasons. Dallas Cowboys' executive Gil Brandt hired Dawson as a scout for the football team, but a year later Dawson entered the business world as a salesman for Converse Shoe Company. A bachelor, Dawson resides in Houston and ranks among the top golfers in the coaching profession.

RUDY TOMJANOVICH

Assistant Coach

Rudy T. is entering his ninth season as a Rockets' assistant coach, his 22nd season overall with the Rockets (this is the Rockets' 25th season). He spent his entire 11-year NBA career with the Rockets, and was a scout for two years following his retirement in 1981. Calvin Murphy (23) and Tomjanovich (45) are the only Rockets to have their numbers retired. His 13,383 points ranks him second to Murphy on the Rockets' all-time list, while his 6,198 rebounds place him behind only Elvin Hayes and Moses Malone. He averaged better than 20 points a game four different seasons, with a high of 24.5 in 1973-74. Five times he was selected to play in the NBA All-Star game, including a starting spot in the 1979 game at Pontiac, Mich., after he came back from a facial fracture suffered in December, 1977. He was a fixture at starting forward for the Rockets his first nine seasons. He led the team in scoring four times, rebounding once and in field goal percentage five times. He had a .501 career field goal percentage. A native of Hamtramck, MI, he graduated from the University of Michigan where he is that school's all-time leading rebounder (1,089), and third highest scorer (1,808) behind Mike McGee and Cazzie Russell. Since 1974, Michigan's Most Improved Player Award has been named after him. Rudy and his wife Sophie reside in Southwest Houston with daughters Nicole 18, and Melissa 15, and son Rudy III, 8.

JOHN KILLILEA

Assistant Coach/Player Personnel

Killilea, who joined the Rockets Aug. 1, 1988, brings 17 years of NBA experience into his job of scouting the college and pro teams. Killilea was an assistant coach for Boston, Milwaukee and New Jersey (1971-85); he retired after the 1984-85 season for one year and then returned as head coach of the CBA's Topeka Sizzlers the last two seasons. This has been a reunion with fourth-year head coach Don Chaney as Killilea was an assistant for Boston from 1971-77—Chaney was the Celtics' starting guard during that time frame. Boston won five division titles and two NBA championships in Killilea's six seasons (1974, 1976 championships). Then he joined Milwaukee's Don Nelson as assistant coach and assistant director of player personnel from 1977-78 to 1982-83—the Bucks won four division championships in his last four seasons. Then he spent two seasons with New Jersey (Stan Albeck was the head coach)—in 1984 the Nets eliminated the defending NBA champion Philadelphia 76ers from the playoffs. Prior to joining the Celtics Killilea coached 18 years at five high schools in Maine and Massachusetts, compiling a 325-85 record (.793). His teams won six state championships in nine visits to the playoffs. He was voted Maine coach of the year (1957), and is a member of both the Maine Hall of Fame (1975) and Massachusetts Basketball Hall of Fame (1976). During his last two years as a high school coach he also found time to do some scouting on a parttime basis for Milwaukee Bucks' coach Larry Costello. A 1952 Boston University graduate, Killilea also holds a Master's Degree in Educational Administration from Salem (MA) State. Recognized as one of the game's premier clinicians, he has conducted camps and coaching sessions throughout the world the last 20 years. He and his wife Eli reside in Brookfield, WI.

RAY MELCHIORRE

Trainer, Traveling Secretary

Melchiorre is in his fifth season with the Rockets, his 21st in professional basketball after becoming only the second trainer/traveling secretary in Houston Rockets' history in August 1987. He succeeded Dick Vandervoort who passed away July 4, 1987 while at his farm in Maryland. Prior to joining Houston, Melchiorre spent eight seasons with Boston, six with the Buffalo Braves and two with the Pittsburgh Condors (ABA). His flexibility program resulted in a dramatic reduction of muscle strains and related injuries over his tenure with Boston. He was only the fifth trainer in the 43-year history of the Celtics. The Philadelphia native is a 1970 graduate of Bethel (McKenzie, TN) College, where he was head trainer and baseball coach for four years. Melchiorre is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and licensed Texas Athletic Trainer Association. He has taught athletic injury courses at the University of Buffalo, Canisius College and Buffalo State College. During the summer Ray continues his work and stays busy with camps throughout the United States—plus making speaking appearances. Melchiorre was the East's trainer for the 1983 NBA All-Star game, and was the host trainer for the 1989 game in Houston. Ray and his wife Liz reside in Houston. They have a son, Michael and two daughters, Kathy and Lisa.

CALVIN MURPHY

Assistant Coach, Shooting/Community Relations

The "Greatest Rocket of Them All" returned Feb. 3, 1989 as the team's shooting coach and to work in community relations. He is in his second year as color commentator on KTXH-TV 20's road telecasts of Rockets games, plus he is in his third season as on-court reporter for home games on HSE. Calvin Murphy, the franchise's all-time leading scorer and one of two Rockets to have his number retired (former teammate and fellow coach Rudy Tomjanovich is the other), works with the younger players, plus he gives speeches and clinics while wearing his community relations hat. Murphy scored 17,949 points in 1,002 games—all with Houston (1970-83). The former Niagara All-America still holds the NBA record for most consecutive free throws made (78, Dec. 27, 1980 - Feb. 28, 1981), and highest FT percentage in one season (.958, 206-215, 1980-81). Murphy led the NBA in free throw percentage twice (1981, 1983), and finished among the Top Five nine other times—including second on eight occasions. Murphy (5) and Rick Barry (7) are the only two players in league history to have shot .900 or better from the line in five or more seasons. The Norwalk, Conn., native is one of only two Rockets to have ranked among the Top 10 in four different statistical categories in one season (Akeem Olajuwon 1987-90 is the other). He still owns the Rockets' single-game scoring record of 57 points vs New Jersey on March 18, 1978—he was 24-40 from the field, 9-12 from the line. Murphy was named to the NBA All-Rookie team in 1971 after being drafted by the Rockets in the second round (18th pick overall). His greatest single season came in 1977-78 when he averaged 25.6 points in 76 games. He averaged better than 20 points a game in five seasons (three consecutive, 1978-80). Murphy averaged in double figures every season he played—professionally, in college and high school.

Calvin averaged 33.1 points in 77 games for Niagara—he averaged 48.9 points in 19 freshman games in 1966-67. Murphy is married (wife Vernetta) and they have two daughters (Tiffani, Tracie) and one son (Calvin Jr.).

ZAN TABAK

Thanks to KOS (Basket Magazine of Yugoslavia) reporter Vlada Olic, we have been able to obtain information on second-round draft selection (51st pick overall) Zan Tabak.

The pronunciation of his name: Zan is like the French Jean, Tabak is Tah-bock.

He is 21-years-old (born in 1970), 7-feet, 215 pounds from Split, Croatia (Yugoslavia). He has two more years on his contract with POP 84 (formerly, Jugoplastika, now known as Slobodna Dalamacija). This is the only team Tabak has played for.

POP 84 won the 1991 European Championships' Cup, Yugoslav Cup and Yugoslav National Championships--POP 84 has won the European and Yugoslav Cups the last three years, the Yugoslav Championships the last four years.

Tabak had 15 points in POP 84's 80-79 win over Cibona in the Yugoslav Cup championship game. He finished the regular season (Yugoslav Championships) with the ninth best FG percentage in the Yugoslav Basketball League, .643 (90-140) in 22 games. He averaged 8.3 points in POP 84's three-game semifinal series win over Zadar (2-1); 9.0 points in a three-game sweep of Partizan of Belgrade (Vlade Divac's former team) in the finals. He shot .724 (21-29) from the field in the six playoff games--the No. 1 mark in the playoffs.

In a complicated computer selection process, Tabak was ranked the ninth best player of the Yugoslav Playoffs with 304 points--Toni Kukoc was the winner with 534 points in 1990-91.

Tabak was selected to play in the first Yugoslav All-Star game where he picked up the nickname "Twiggy". He was not a member of the Yugoslav National Team that won the European Championship on June 29, 1991, but he was on the 1989 Yugoslav Junior National Team that won the European Championship. He teaches English in high school.

1990-91, Month-by-Month

NOVEMBER (8-7)

By winning eight of 15 November games, the Rockets compiled a winning record for the third straight month (including March and April of 1990). Center Hakeem Olajuwon led the way for Houston during the month by averaging 25.3 points, plus a league-leading 13.2 rebounds and 3.6 blocks per game. Olajuwon's best game of the month came in a 110-90 win over Utah in The Summit on Nov. 11 when he scored 31 points, grabbed 21 rebounds and blocked seven shots. Guard Kenny Smith, who was acquired from Atlanta (Sept. 27), fit in perfectly with Coach Don Chaney and his new club by averaging 17.3 points and 7.5 assists for the month. Houston's most impressive November victory was a 115-88 win at Madison Square Garden over the Knicks--representing the Rockets' largest margin of victory ever over New York.

DECEMBER (8-6)

Houston kept alive its streak of winning months at four by capturing eight of 14 games in December. The Rockets have compiled a .500 or better record in 12 of Don Chaney's 14 months as head coach -- the best such streak in franchise history. And for the first time since January 1987 the Rockets put together a winning month on the road, going 4-3. The road highlight of December was a 108-100 win over Philadelphia on Dec. 12 -- the Rockets' first win in The Spectrum since Jan. 2, 1974. Six different players averaged double-figure scoring for the month including Olajuwon (23.4), K. Smith (15.6), Otis Thorpe (15.2), Vernon Maxwell (14.1), Buck Johnson (12.6) and Sleepy Floyd (12.4). Olajuwon also had the best rebounding month of his career, averaging 15.4 -- this including two 20-rebound games. Houston also sank a franchise-record 53 3-PTers during the month.

JANUARY (7-8)

The Rockets finished January one game under the .500 mark, snapping a string of winning months at four. Although things look bleak for Houston after All-Star center Olajuwon suffered a blowout fracture of the bone around his right eye in the month's first game vs Chicago in The Summit (Jan. 3) -- which sidelined him until Feb. 28 -- the Rockets went on to set six franchise scoring records (including a 156-133 win at Denver on Jan. 10, a high for points scored in a game), and put together a season-high, three-game winning streak. Thorpe, Larry Smith, Maxwell and Kenny Smith paced the Rockets. Thorpe averaged 20.7 points, 10.2 rebounds and 3.5 assists, while L. Smith averaged 13.1 rebounds and came away with a team-high 29 steals -- all while playing as the league's smallest center. Kenny Smith averaged 17.1 points, including a career-high 38 in a loss against Golden State on Jan. 22. Maxwell became the first NBA guard to hit for 50 points in 1990-91 (one of only two), collecting 51 in a 103-97 win over Cleveland on Jan. 26 -- he had 30 points in the fourth quarter to become the fifth player in league history to score 30 or more points in one quarter.

FEBRUARY (9-3)

Putting together solid performances both at home and on the road, the Rockets were victorious in nine of 12 February games. Perhaps most impressive was the team's 5-2 road record -- the second best road record for one month in franchise history (beaten only by a 6-2 mark in March 1982). The Rockets' road wins came against San Antonio, Milwaukee, Cleveland, Minnesota and Denver. Big wins at The Summit came against Phoenix, Milwaukee and Golden State. Houston outscored the opposition for the month 106.2-102.2 -- holding seven teams under the 100-point mark -- and out-rebounded its opponents 47.5-42.8. By leading his club to such a solid record, especially without the services of Olajuwon in the lineup, Chaney was named February's Digital NBA Coach of the Month. The Rockets got big February contributions from Thorpe (20.3 points, 12.8 rebounds per game), Larry Smith (14.7 rebounds per game, 5 20+ rebounding efforts), Maxwell (19.8 ppg) and Kenny Smith (17.5 ppg). Thorpe was named the NBA's Player of the Week (Feb. 3).

MARCH (14-1)

Emphasizing a strong defensive effort, which held opponents to 99.1 ppg in 15 games, the Rockets not only put together the best month in franchise history, but one of the best in NBA history as well, going 14-1 in March. Houston is one of only six NBA teams to play at least 15 games in one month and lose only once since 1973 (it has been done 13 times overall). Along the way Houston set three franchise records -- the longest winning streak in team history (13 games); the most wins in one month (14); and the best road record in one month (6-1). In holding nine of 15 opponents under 100 points, the Rockets outscored their opponents 108.6-99.1. Houston's biggest March road wins came over the Lakers (104-95, March 3), Suns (135-128, March 15) and Bulls (110-90, March 25, breaking Chicago's 26-game home winning streak). The Rockets' leading performers were Kenny Smith (20.8 ppg), Thorpe (18.4 ppg, 10.4 rpg) and Olajuwon (17.1 ppg, 12.1 rpg). K. Smith earned NBA Player of the Week honors for March 11-17. . . Don Chaney won the Digital NBA Coach of the Month award again, to become the first coach since the award was first given out (1982-83) to win in consecutive months.

APRIL (6-5)

The Rockets, who set or tied 63 franchise records in 1990-91, saved the best for last. Houston defeated Denver 131-125 on the final day of the season to pick up win No. 52 -- a franchise record (the 1985-86 team went 51-31). The Rockets have now produced a winning record in three straight months, and haven't had a losing record in 15 of the last 18 months, 36 of the last 44. Maxwell, who set the NBA single-season for 3-PTers made (172), led Houston in April by averaging 19.2 points per game. Olajuwon averaged 18.6 points, 14.7 rebounds, 4.4 blocks, 2.6 steals and 2.2 assists; while K. Smith contributed 17.5 points and 8.5 assists in 8 games. The Rockets started April with three straight wins, then hit a bumpy road toward the end. Houston finished the season with eight games in 13 days -- 5 games were on the road -- which produced a 3-5 finish. Portland defeated the Rockets twice, San Antonio once during the last days of April.

HOUSTON ROCKETS' NOTES

TEAM OVERVIEW

Houston's 24th season was quite memorable considering 63 franchise records were set or tied, including the best regular-season mark (52-30) . . . two other significant franchise records set in 1990-91: most consecutive wins, 13 (March 3-28), and best record for one month (14-1 in March) . . . Don Chaney won the NBA's Digital Coach of the Year award, while guard Kenny Smith finished third in the Most Improved Player category; Hakeem Olajuwon earned second team All-Defensive team and third-team All-NBA honors . . . Vernon Maxwell established the NBA record for most 3-PTers made in one season (172), and became the fifth player in league history to score 30+ points in one quarter when he had 30 in the fourth quarter against Cleveland, Jan. 26 . . . Houston improved its overall record 11 games from 1989-90, the second best improvement in the league (Orlando was +13)...the Rockets were the most improved road team in the NBA with an 11-game improvement (10-31 to 21-20)...Houston did it mostly with defense . . . the Rockets tied for fourth (with Portland) in the NBA in FG percentage defense (.456), were 6th in points allowed, 7th in rebounding and turnovers forced--and for the second straight season topped the league in 3-PT percentage defense (.295) . . . unfortunately, the Rockets ran into the Lakers for the second straight season in the first round of the playoffs (see below for details).

SEVEN STRAIGHT: Houston made its seventh straight appearance in the NBA playoffs -- the Rockets are among eight NBA teams who have made the playoffs seven straight seasons (Boston, Chicago, Detroit, Lakers, Milwaukee, Portland and Utah) . . . the Rockets, who clinched their playoff berth on March 21 vs Sacramento, made their 11th playoff appearance out of the last 13 seasons . . . the Lakers (13) and Portland (12) are the only Western Conference teams that have a better streak going over the last 13 seasons.

MOST IMPROVED: The Rockets compiled a franchise-record 52-30 win-loss mark in 1990-91, an 11-game improvement from last season . . . Houston, which went 31-10 in The Summit a fourth straight season, made up the difference on the road -- improving from 10-31 to a franchise-record equalling 21-20 mark . . . the Rockets' 11-game improvement is the best among the playoff teams, and second overall (Orlando improved 13 games over last season).

MORE INDICATORS: Over the last 38 games Houston out-scored the opposition 106.3-101.6, out-rebounding them 46.9 to 44.4 . . . the Rockets' defense limited the opposition to a .446 mark from the field . . . four Rockets each averaged 18+ (Kenny Smith 18.9, Maxwell 18.1, Olajuwon and Thorpe 18 each) . . . Olajuwon averaged 13.3 rebounds, Thorpe 10.9 and Larry Smith 10.0.

ATTENDANCE: The Rockets drew 613,230 fans in The Summit in 1990-91 -- the sixth consecutive season Houston has topped 600,000 during the regular season . . . the Rockets sold out 13 games in 1990-91, and take a streak of 7 consecutive sellouts into the 1991-92 season.

MOST IMPROVED: The Rockets were the most improved road team in the NBA, going from a 10-31 mark in 1989-90 to a franchise-record equalling 21-20 in 1990-91 . . . this is the 22nd time in NBA history a team has improved its road record by 10 games or more (the second time for Houston, the Rockets were 8-33 in 1983-84, then went to 19-22 in 1984-85) . . . here's a rundown of the all-time best marks:

NO.	TEAM	RECORD
19	San Antonio	22-19 in 1989-90; 3-38 in 1988-89
18	Boston	26-15 in 1979-80; 8-33 in 1978-79
14.5	Milwaukee	24-14 in 1969-70; 8-27 in 1968-69
14.5	LA Lakers	31-7 in 1971-72; 17-22 in 1970-71
14	Phoenix	30-21 in 1988-89; 6-35 in 1987-88
13	Portland	24-17 in 1989-90; 11-30 in 1988-89
13	Utah	16-25 in 1975-76; 3-38 in 1974-75
12	Washington	24-15 in 1968-69; 12-23 in 1967-68
12	Boston	22-19 in 1989-90; 10-31 in 1988-89
11	6 times, last Houston
10	7 times, last Golden State	(14-27 in 1988-89; 4-37 in 1987-88)

NO PLACE LIKE HOME: The Rockets won 11 straight in The Summit (Feb. 21-April 6), their second best home winning streak in franchise history -- the 1985-86 team won 20 straight . . . (the 1976-77 squad won 11 straight in The Summit, the 1989-90 team won 10 straight) . . . defense played a key role -- Houston outscored the opposition 106.0-93.1 over these games -- only two teams scored 100 or more (New Jersey 100, Golden State 119) . . . the Rockets out-rebounded the opposition 49.2-40.3 and out-shot them from the field .478 to .431.

OFFENSE: Another factor in the Rockets' success over the last three months was the versatility of their offense . . . six different players were the Rockets' leading scorer in a game at least 6 times over the last 42 games . . . Thorpe has been the leading scorer in 11 games, Kenny Smith, Sleepy Floyd, Maxwell and Olajuwon 8 each, Johnson 7...all six players averaged 12.3+ points per game, a franchise first . . . the Rockets (Johnson) fell 9 points short of tying an NBA record for most players scoring 1,000 points in the same season . . . Olajuwon, Thorpe, Kenny Smith, Maxwell and Floyd and all topped 1,000 points . . . the record holders: Syracuse 1960-61: Dolph Schayes 1,868; Hal Greer 1,551; Dick Barnett 1,320; Dave Gambee 1,085; Larry Costello 1,084; John Kerr 1,056; Denver 1987-88: Alex English 2,000; Fat Lever 1,546; Michael Adams 1,137; Danny Schayes 1,129; Sam Vincent 1,124 and Blair Rasmussen 1,002; Boston 1990-91: Reggie Lewis, Larry Bird, Kevin Gamble, Kevin McHale, Robert Parish and Brian Shaw.

DEFENSE: Overall, 1990-91 has been the best season defensively in franchise history . . . Houston limited opponents to less than 100 points a franchise-record 40 times -- only Detroit (51), Chicago (46), Lakers (44) and Utah (42) had more such games in 1990-91 . . . the Rockets yielded 103.2 points per game -- the second best defensive effort in franchise history (the 1974-75 squad yielded 102.9 points per game)...the Rockets finished sixth in scoring defense behind Detroit (96.8), Lakers (99.6), Utah (100.7), Chicago (101.0) and San Antonio (102.6) . . . this is the second highest finish in franchise history, the 1986-87 team ranked third in the NBA, yielding 105.9 points . . . opponents shot .456 from the field against the Rockets, the fourth best total in the NBA -- only San Antonio (.448), Boston (.452) and Detroit (.453) had better marks . . . this is Houston's best defensive effort since 1971-72 when opponents shot .453 . . . Houston held the opposition to less than 100 points in 18 of the last 32 games -- the best such streak in franchise history . . . in the last 32 games Houston out-scored the opponents 105.3-100.1 and limited them to a .432 mark from the field; the Rockets out-rebounded the opposition 47.8-45.6.

THREE-POINT BOMBERS: The Rockets made 316 3-PTers this season, which is the fourth best total in league history -- seven teams have made 300+ 3-PTers in one season (3 this season) -- the others: New York 386 in 1988-89, Cleveland 346 in 1989-90, Portland 341 in 1990-91, LA Lakers 309 in 1989-90, Sacramento 307 in 1988-89 and Denver 300 in 1990-91 . . . New York attempted 1,147 3-PTers in 1988-89, No. 2 on the all-time list is this season's Denver Nuggets with 1,059; and No. 3 is this season's Rockets with 989.

THE SUMMIT

The Houston Rockets have called The Summit home since the building first opened in 1975. The Summit, which seats 16,279 for Rockets' games and better than 17,000 for other events, is located on a seven-acre site north of the Southwest Freeway, between Edloe and Timmons streets—approximately four miles from downtown.

Houston has compiled a 436-220 (.664) record in 16 seasons (25-21 in the playoffs) since the first game was played on Nov. 2, 1975 vs Milwaukee—a 104-89 Houston win. The Rockets have sold out 165 of the last 228 home dates including exhibitions and playoffs; taking a streak of 7 consecutive sellouts into their 17th Summit season. Houston has drawn better than 600,000 for seven consecutive seasons (including playoffs), averaging 16,000 per game. The Rockets top season was 1987-88 when they sold out every exhibition, regular-season and playoff game.

The Rockets will call The Summit home through the year 2,003 after signing a seven-year extension on their lease in October 1988. The Rockets also have exclusive control of the signage in the arena, television production of Rockets' games, program advertising and sales.

The site was donated to the City of Houston by Greenway Plaza, Kenneth Schnitzer, Chairman of the Board. Construction of The Summit began in late 1973 following approval by the Houston City Council in October that year. Construction was financed by the sale of $18 million of first mortgage revenue bonds. Under terms of a 30-year contract with the city, the operator of The Summit is the Arena Operating Company, Mike McGee, president.

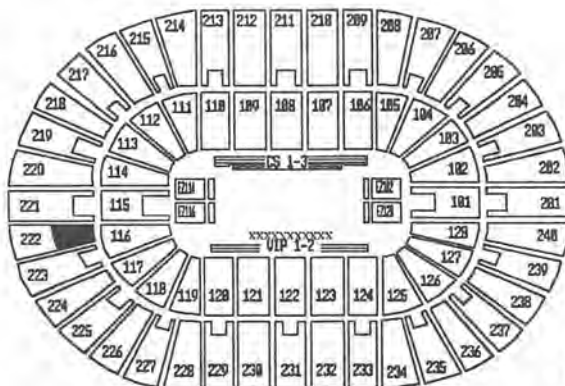

The building, 427-feet long by 312-feet wide, offers unobstructed viewing from seats on two major levels and from 20 plush private Summit suites located above the upper promenade level. Maximum distance of any spectator from the arena floor is 128 feet.

Some other features of the building, which has more than 2 million patrons attend 175 events annually, include two 20-feet wide by 15-feet high TelScreens suspended at each end of the arena; 55 Sony television monitors located throughout the concourse so patrons will not miss anything going on inside the arena; two 100-foot auxiliary scoreboards added in 1988 to the fascia at midcourt of the upper promenade (on both sides)—which also has message boards to keep patrons up-to-date on happenings in the NBA.

There are 12 hotels and 25 restaurants within a 2-mile radius of the building. The Summit is within 40 minutes of Houston's two major airports, Houston Intercontinental and William P. Hobby.

WHY HOUSTON IS CALLED ROCKETS:

Basketball fans in San Diego were asked to submit their suggestion for a nickname in a contest. More than 1,000 different names were submitted in the 10,000 entries to "Name the Team". After careful deliberation, a group of the city's leading citizens selected the nickname "Rockets" because it kept with the city's theme of a "City in Motion" while reflecting the tremendous growth of the space-age industries in San Diego.
